

"Our music speaks to a generation born in time of transition - from structure to endless possibilities. When our lives are no longer governed by politics, religion, or cultural expectations, and it is truly up to us to find our destined path by seeking answers in some ultimate truth. This is the Maze."

Generation Maze is a rock band based in Los Angeles. Spearheaded by guitarist/singer, Matt Haze, GM comprises of L.A. studio and touring musicians, including Leo Costa (drums), Will Herrington (piano), Jesse Olema (violin), and Alex Balderston (bass). Individually, these musicians have performed with an array of sensational artists across genres including Lady Gaga, Stanley Clarke, Everlast, Sergio Mendes, K.D. Lang, J.C. Chasez, and more.

With a diverse group of musicians, musically trained at universities such as USC, Cal Arts, and Berklee College of Music, the music of Generation Maze brings together layers cross-genre styles to a rock band.

Generation Maze has recently released their first album, "PORTAL 1" (Currently available directly through contacting us through this site).
